MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence
SUBJECT : Request for Publication of an Article in Readers Digest

1. Attached is an article outline and transmittal letter to Readers Digest for a piece I wish to submit for publication concerning the personal story of

[Redacted]

I noted that the proposed article would be an unofficial undertaking of my own and was not related to any governmental interest.

2. While passing through Washington last December, [Redacted] contacted me unexpectedly and offered me an expanded exclusive interview at a future date. He was most agreeable to my plan for an article and offered to provide further information to fill out the story as it progressed. I see no conflict between the information I would use in this article and any national security information available to me. Before I contact Readers Digest about their interest in handling the publication I would appreciate your approval to pursue the article in line with the attached outline.
